Our 2014 Tesorina marks the third year in a row that we made the decision to bottle our flagship “little treasure”. We only produce Tesorina in the very best vintages, and only when we believe we’ve created something truly unique and extraordinary. From the outset, this wine’s deep, rich, seductive aromas make it clear that this is special stuff. There are gobs of pure ripe fruit here – blackberries, black raspberries, cassis, spicy black cherries, even boysenberries and huckleberries – with alluring complexity that comes from additional notes of dark chocolate, graphite, fresh spring flowers, and charismatic flourishes of dusty summer lavender and stony minerality. The texture here is fantastically sumptuous, densely packed and broad and rich and thick, yet exquisitely polished and silky in a beautiful balance of power and elegance. The coup de grace is a finish that is utterly breathtaking.
